Charlie Bear Comes to Tea

Charlie Bear has come to me
To travel into infinity
He moves through space like Superman
And holds me by his other hand.
We soar and soar through outer space
Looking for a sacred place
To alight so I might see
Some of what's out there waiting for me.
To experience firsthand so I might know
There are infinite places where I can go
To see the splendor of other domains
From mountain tops to grassy plains.
We can go beneath the sea
Oh, my, such splendor do I see
And then if I so choose to go
Way into space he'll also show.
That there are places far and wide
That welcome me to go inside
And laugh and love and just be me
A soul as free as one can be.
There are no rights, there are no wrongs
Life can be such happy songs
And then returning back to earth
I ground myself to my place of birth.

A Little Bird Lived in a Cage

A little bird lived in a cage
And didn't know how to rend his rage
For being confined in a tiny space
There were mental bars all over the place
Along came Deidre Madsen and what did she do?
She opened the door and showed the bird through
Freedom was only a hop away
It was the most amazing display
I'll tell you this, I am that bird
And truly you can take my word
I can now fly very far and wide
Then come back home where I abide.

A complete experience I've known Deidre since 1998. I am an energy worker and she and I developed patterns for healing that engage spontaneous emotions and some very sharp visualizations. She rocks! Over this time, she has developed a way for her clients to reach a good healthy and life extending way of understanding their issues. I especially like the agreement that she has drawn up to help affirm that the mission in their sessions has been accomplished. TGI work with Deidre is a complete experience. - Patrick Brack, St. Louis, MO

The session was fun and relaxing - I received a healing session with Deidre this week, and it was amazing! She gently led me on a guided journey through my inner psyche, helping me to explore and change my inner world as I desired. The session was fun, relaxing, and I noticed immediate results from the changes I made.
Thanks Deidre! - Jeff Allen, Sedona, AZ

500 Stars ★★★★★★ - She also has helped to develop a plan [TGI] as how to achieve the goals I had set for myself. Her patience and understanding surpass her years ... as she understands the desires of your heart and truly wants to help you achieve them.

Life-Altering! - My sessions in Emotional Release, Homeopathic Remedies and Transformational Guided Imagery (TGI) offered such insight, and clearings, that they were life- altering. This [TGI] was a fascinating session. It was wonderful to visit with my loved ones who passed on, and to know I could visit with them again. Note: I pictured the right side of my brain as a space filled with emerald crystals. The next day I went to have a picture taken of my aura, and it was emerald green! - CC, Temecula, CA USA

The most fascinating modality that I've experienced so far - I had never heard of TGI before I met Deidre, but I immediately got interested when she explained to me what it was all about. Since that I have had quite a few sessions, and this is one of the most powerful ways I can think of to get to the core with your issues. Its usefulness has no limits, only your fantasy. I deeply recommend taking a journey with Deidre to your inner room and meeting your guides, healers and even the janitor in your inner maintenance room! And the best thing of all is you can do it yourself after your first session. TGI works on both physical, emotional and mental levels. It's a very exciting journey through your different layers. If you feel like you're not a visual person and wish you were TGI is the choice for you. And if you have physical and emotional pain that you are ready to let go of, try TGI. Thank you, Deidre, for introducing me to the most fascinating modality that I've experienced so far. - Aurora Spuhler, Sedona, AZ

TGI also gives me confidence in my dreams and visions - I have known Deidre for a few years. I had several TGI sessions with her in 2003 and 1 session about a month ago. I am amazed at how TGI gives me direct access to my emotions and how I am feeling in the moment. I went to the last session to explore a drawing I made of a dream. During the session I discovered that my drawing was connected to my emotional issues at the time. Deidre made a few suggestions which helped me to heal and release these issues. I find that which helped me to heal and release these issues. I find that TGI goes straight to the core issue(s); it skips right past the excuses and defenses and surface issues. TGI also gives me confidence in my dreams and visions. I feel very good about Deidre and TGI sessions and their ability to bring up my emotions for healing and release. - Daniel Maddux, Sedona, AZ

What an angel - I have a safe place to go in my mind - Deidre is now my sister. I love her more than words can ever say. I came here a broken, depressed mess and am leaving with hope and a renewed sense of love and joy. I will keep in contact because she has put me on the path to healing and spiritual enlightenment. What an angel. I have a safe place to go in my mind; inner guidance and had the experiences of a lifetime at the vortex of beauty with a Spiritual [Nature] Vortex Ceremony and TGI [session]. She has released me from a prison of hell. - Aho! Raven, Douglasville, GA

Healing Developmental Disabilities - Mental Retardation, Sensory Integration Dysfunction, Poor Motor Coordination, Hypersensitive Hearing, Speech and Language Deficits and Social Emotional Regulation - Hello Deidre, thank you for the Transformational Guided Imagery, TGI work you have been doing with Scotty. It has been 24 years since he acquired his brain injuries from low oxygen saturations, infantile stroke and cerebral atrophy all resulting from a heart defect at birth. Scott has participated since the age of two in many traditional forms of therapy to assist him with his developmental disability including mental retardation, sensory integration dysfunction, poor motor coordination, hypersensitive hearing, speech and language deficits and struggles with social emotional regulation. All of these therapies brought Scott very far over the years. We have had what I know to be some of the nation's best therapists to whom we are forever grateful. We can now add Deidre Madsen to this list of highly qualified professionals. Thank you. In the short time that you have been assisting Scott in TGI sessions he has very quickly improved in what our psychologist, Beth Anne Martin, PhD at Cleveland Clinic Foundation calls Theory of Mind, the ability to think about one's own thinking. This higher level of thought has been observed not only by me and family members but by Scott's programming director at his work site who is a specialist for the emotionally-challenged population. We all see Scott having increased helpfulness with his peers due to his ability to access the areas in his brain that provide him with empathy for others, improved focus and attention and an ability to stay in the "here and now". Additionally, Scott shows us increased flexibility, faster processing of information and feelings. Scott healed past emotional wounds with his father who has been in hospice and is now spontaneous with sincere emotional interactions with his Dad. He is no longer fearful of his Dad's impending passing due to your Transformational Guided Imagery work. We are blessed to know you and your unique work. It is my hope that you can assist others with developmental disabilities to more fully experience the outer world by accessing the right and left hemispheres of their brains to activate their own internal psyche to be more of who they can be. - Sincere Regards, Billie Erickson, Mother to Scott

Overcoming insecurities - Hi Deidre, I wanted to let you know I experienced a big shift last evening when I was out in public with my boyfriend. I also felt empowered to speak to him directly about my needs, without feeling needy. Many thanks for sharing your wisdom. We shall see where this goes, but I feel like I am coming from a more grounded place. Sharing your personal story of how you access your inner male was very helpful, as I sometimes need things to be spelled out:) And, as we were in a bar filled with younger people, I found myself blessing other women who appeared insecure to me and wishing them that they know their worth. - With Love, VT

Thank you for the opportunity to be of service and assistance to you on your beautiful spiritual path.

With Love and Gratitude,

Deidre Madsen
